CURRENT PROJECT:

Rotarians are just ordinary people doing extraordinary things by working together.

From Thanksgiving through New Year's Day, our community came together to raise money for the victims of the Camp Fire in Paradise who lost everything in the devastation. We used our Rotary raffle boxes in about 30 locations around Murphys and Angels Camp to collect cash, checks and gift cards during the busy season. Over $7,000 was raised and sent to Paradise Rotary Foundation to be distributed according to their short- and long-term plans. In the first 3 weeks they raised over $1,000,000!

In case you missed it . . .

We're off and running in this New Year. Mike reported that the fence at the Children's Advocacy Center is finished. Rick was very thoughtful to get a metal emblem/sign made to commemorate the project. Thanks to both of them for pushing the project through to completion so quickly. Foundation Director Tammy was pleased to award Brian Goss his first Paul Harris Fellowship certificate and pin. He achieved this status by donating $1000 to The Rotary Foundation and is already working his way to his second. Thank you and congrats, Brian!

We honored Students of the Semester, and Bret Harte Students of the Month for December and January. Present with proud family members and teachers were Trinity and Carston from Avery, Melana and Wyatt from Mark Twain, Janelle from John Vierra, Anthony from Vallecito, and Michaela, Brianna, Thomas and Jordan from Bret Harte.

Guests also included Pam DiBasilio and Delinda Dontje. Meryl pulled a red marble...super pot = $310.
