CURRENT PROJECT:

Rotarians are just ordinary people doing extraordinary things by working together.

From Thanksgiving through New Year's Day, our community came together to raise money for the victims of the Camp Fire in Paradise who lost everything in the devastation. We used our Rotary raffle boxes in about 30 locations around Murphys and Angels Camp to collect cash, checks and gift cards during the busy season. Over $7,000 was raised and sent to Paradise Rotary Foundation to be distributed according to their short- and long-term plans. In the first 3 weeks they raised over $1,000,000!

In case you missed it . . .

After a perfect recital of the Four Way Test and taking attendance, Scott became the latest recipient of the coveted Blue Badge. Great job, Scott! Prez Steve dusted off the old Jok-O-Meter for a face off between Sam and Jim. The joke about a lie-detecting robot got the most chuckles. Many Happy Bucks were donated: King was just having a happy day, Bernard got to eat seconds, Pamela's daughter bought a vehicle on her own, and a bunch of us were happy that Liz M.'s Black Sheep Zin won a gold ribbon!

Tammy Beilstein shared what it's like to make a Public Access TV show. She stars in "Tammy's Window on Calaveras" and "What's She Up to Now", bringing her a lot of local fans and a few stalkers! The programs are 30 minutes with no breaks, but filming goes fast. The studio in San Andreas uses 3 cameras. No commercials are allowed, and anyone can do a PSA. In fact, many Rotarians have done Public Access shows! We plan to do one about our Shrimp Feed fundraiser. You can view the programs on Comcast channel 7 or on YouTube.

Andi realized she should have gotten in the side pool, no luck with the marble...super pot = $330.
