Rotarians are just ordinary people doing extraordinary things by working together.

Next month is our Shrimp Feed fundraiser and we need YOU to help make it a great success! Our goal is to pre-sell 350-400 tickets, and the easiest way for your friends to buy them is online at our newly revamped website: angelsmurphysrotary.org. Please donate items to the Silent Auction! We'll also have a fun new raffle with a $1000 cash prize! Does anyone remember this auction item from 2016? →

Prez Bert is a history buff, and carried on the tradition of sharing “on this day in history” anecdotes. It was announced that Leanne will be taking over International Service and Donna will do Vocational Service for the Club Board. Bert discussed goals for the year which include having fun, create a long-range planning committee, do quarterly tours and social events, continue to grow membership, give to The Rotary Foundation and our scholarship fund, participate in international projects and GIVE MORE to the community. We auctioned off the Finemaster job with two clear winners – Duane and Paula (in absentia) were “elected”. The following week Paula received her blue badge, found out she was finemaster, and proceeded to recognize various members for birthdays and anniversaries! Guest Debbie Washburn from Redding said she will be transferring to our club. And please also introduce yourself to applicants in progress, Darrie Gillespie from Bank of Stockton and Cristi Canepa from Mind Matters. Welcome all!

Be ready to sign up soon for job shifts at the Shrimp Feed!*
